Agreement

This Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into as of the date indicated above between Fidelity Investments Charitable Gift Fund (“Fidelity Charitable”) and the firm being hired to provide investment advisory services indicated above (the “Advisor Firm”).

WHEREAS, Fidelity Charitable is a charitable trust organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and is a charitable organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and Section 509(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and in effect; and

WHEREAS, Fidelity Charitable operates donor-advised funds described in Internal Revenue Code Section 4966(d)(2), each of which is referred to by Fidelity Charitable as a Giving Account® (which is a charitable giving vehicle whereby donors make irrevocable charitable contributions of personal assets to Fidelity Charitable, and the donor and/or persons appointed by the donor (“Account Holders”) have advisory privileges over the Giving Account with respect to distributions and investments); and

WHEREAS, as with all charitable contributions to Fidelity Charitable, the assets are held by and remain the property of the Trustees of Fidelity Charitable, who have exclusive ownership and legal control over these balances; and, as such, the Trustees have complete and sole discretion over investment decisions for Fidelity Charitable, extending from the creation and updating of investment policies to exercising the right to approve all transactions affecting the investments of Fidelity Charitable; and

WHEREAS, the Trustees of Fidelity Charitable have established the Charitable Investment Advisor Program (the “Program”) to allow certain qualified independent investment advisors the opportunity to provide investment advisory and management services with respect to certain Fidelity Charitable assets that were contributed by the Account Holders (or persons who appointed the Account Holders) who nominated the Advisor Firm and have been allocated to their Giving Accounts that the Trustees have designated as part of the Charitable Investment Advisor Program (the “Assets”); and

WHEREAS, Fidelity Charitable will assess an annual administrative fee on the Assets, as more fully described in the Program Description Investment Policy and Guidelines (the “Program Guidelines”); and

WHEREAS, Fidelity Charitable seeks to engage an Advisor Firm that understands and supports Fidelity Charitable’s mission and practice of active grant-making; and

WHEREAS, Fidelity Charitable appoints the Advisor Firm nominated by the Account Holder to provide advice and/or direction with respect to the investment of the Assets in accordance with the Program Guidelines (“Investment Services”) as a client of the Advisor Firm (the Advisor Firm understands that the Assets are held by, and remain the property of, Fidelity Charitable, which has exclusive ownership and legal control over the Assets);

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed between Fidelity Charitable and the Advisor Firm (collectively, “the parties”) as follows:

Roles and Responsibilities

1. The Advisor Firm acknowledges that Fidelity Charitable is its client regarding the Investment Services and is the legal owner of the Assets, although the Account Holder has certain advisory privileges.

2. The Advisor Firm agrees to invest the Assets solely for the benefit of Fidelity Charitable.

3. The Advisor Firm agrees to ensure that it is communicated to the Account Holder that Fidelity Charitable is the legal owner of the Assets.

4. Neither the Advisor Firm nor its employees shall be considered as or constitute an employee of Fidelity Charitable.

5. The Assets will be custodied at National Financial Services LLC (“NFS”) unless otherwise agreed upon.

6. If Fidelity Charitable has approved for the Assets to be custodied at a custodian other than NFS, the Advisor Firm agrees to instruct the custodian to provide trade execution and custodial services with respect to the Assets. The Advisor Firm also agrees to the terms and conditions in the attached Addendum: Other Custodian.

Investment Services

7. Fidelity Charitable and the Advisor Firm agree that the Advisor Firm is providing Investment Services in the capacity of one of the following options unless otherwise agreed on: (Check one.)

☐ Discretionary: The Advisor Firm shall have full discretion and authority, without obtaining the prior approval by Fidelity Charitable: (i) to supervise and direct the investment of the Account assets; and (ii) to hire, delegate discretionary investment authority to, and terminate Sub-Advisor Firms for investment of the Account assets.

☐ Nondiscretionary: The Advisor Firm must obtain prior approval by Fidelity Charitable: (i) to direct the investment of the Account assets; (ii) to hire, delegate discretionary investment authority to, and terminate Sub-Advisor Firms for investment of the Account assets; and (iii) to effect trades. Investment recommendations must be in accordance with the Program Guidelines.

8. The Advisor Firm acknowledges that:

a. All charitable contributions made to Fidelity Charitable by a donor are irrevocable and cannot be refunded.

b. Advisor Firm is responsible for ensuring compliance with the Investment Guidelines, including in the event that Assets are contributed in kind.

9. The Advisor Firm agrees that its investment advisor representatives ("Advisor Representatives") will provide the Investment Services in accordance with the Program Guidelines. The Advisor Firm agrees to assign a dedicated Advisor Representative for each Giving Account and communicate to Fidelity Charitable and the Account Holder, as soon as practicable, but in any event within 30 days, if a different Advisor Representative is assigned afterward.

10. The Advisor Firm agrees that it will not permit any Advisor Representative to provide the Investment Services where the Advisor Representative is an “Account Holder” with respect to the Assets, or a “family member” or a “related entity” of that Account Holder.

11. The Advisor Firm acknowledges that the Investment Services will be provided with the understanding that liquidity may be required from time to time for various reasons, including but not limited to supporting grant-making and paying Fidelity Charitable’s administrative fees. Fidelity Charitable reserves the right to liquidate the Assets if its Advisor Representative fails to act on an Account Holder’s grant recommendation in a timely fashion, unless the Advisor Firm uses an Other Custodian. (Advisor Firms using other Custodians should refer to the Other Custodian addendum hereto.)

12. The Advisor Firm agrees that its Advisor Representative shall perform its duties with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances that a prudent person acting in such capacity and familiar with such matters would perform such duties, and the Advisor Representative shall at all times provide the Investment Services in a manner consistent with the Program Guidelines.

Proxy Voting and Class Actions

13. Fidelity Charitable retains the right and obligation to vote any proxies with respect to the Assets unless otherwise agreed on.

14. Fidelity Charitable retains the right to respond to class action suits with respect to the Assets.

Professional Liability Insurance

15. The Advisor Firm, at its own expense, shall procure and maintain during the term of this Agreement policies of insurance to include Errors and Omissions Liability, at a minimum, in the amounts as outlined in the Program Guidelines.

Performance and Asset Allocation

16. Fidelity Charitable will monitor (i) performance of the Assets against the benchmark provided in the Program Guidelines, and (ii) overall compliance with the investment guidelines contained in the Program Guidelines, including without limitation asset allocation and concentration. The Advisor Firm also agrees to provide Fidelity Charitable with investment performance reports upon request. In addition, Fidelity Charitable may request that the Advisor Firm, from time to time, provide the Account Holder with performance reports.

17. Fidelity Charitable acknowledges that the Advisor Firm does not guarantee the performance of the Assets.

1 An “Account Holder” is a donor or donor advisor (as defined by IRS rules and regulations) and/or an Account Holder (as defined in the Fidelity Charitable Policy Guidelines: Program Circular).

2 A “family member” is a spouse, sister or brother (including a half-sister or half-brother), parent, grandparent, great-grandparent, child, grandchild, or great-grandchild, or a spouse of a sister, brother, child, grandchild, or great-grandchild.

3 A “related entity” is any entity in which any Account Holder or his or her family members collectively own more than 35% of the total outstanding interests.
Fees

18. In consideration of the Investment Services performed in connection with this Agreement, Fidelity Charitable will pay the Advisor Firm an investment advisory fee (the “Advisory Fee”). Such Advisory Fee shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Program Guidelines. Without limiting the foregoing:

a. The Advisor Firm agrees to provide its standard investment advisory fee schedule to Fidelity Charitable;

b. The Advisor Firm warrants and represents that the Advisory Fee is charged at a rate no greater than that of other similarly situated clients/investors of the Advisor Firm, and in no event in excess of the standard investment advisory fee schedule;

c. The Advisor Firm agrees that it will provide invoices regarding the Advisory Fees, upon request;

d. The Advisor Firm confirms that it shall disclose to the Account Holder the agreed Advisory Fee;

e. The Advisor Firm agrees to provide Fidelity Charitable with a description of all compensation it may receive with respect to the Assets, other than the Advisory Fee; the Advisor Firm agrees to promptly inform Fidelity Charitable of any changes to the compensation.

f. Apart from the foregoing, no other fees or charges shall be charged by the Advisor Firm with respect to this Agreement or the Assets. Advisor Firm agrees to notify Fidelity Charitable immediately if any of the representations in paragraph 17, in any respect, are no longer true.

Sub-Advisor Relationships

19. The Advisor Firm accepts responsibility for oversight of any firm it retains to manage a portion of the Assets (“Sub-Advisor Firm”) as part of the Program. The Advisor Firm represents that it has informed the Sub-Advisor Firm(s) that the Assets are owned by, and remain the property of, Fidelity Charitable, which has exclusive ownership and legal control over the Assets.

20. The Advisor Firm acknowledges that the Sub-Advisor Firm has received a copy of the Program Guidelines. The Advisor Firm represents that the Sub-Advisor Firm will manage the Assets in accordance with the Program Guidelines and the terms and conditions in this Agreement.

21. The Advisor Firm has communicated the following criteria to the Sub-Advisor Firm:

a. Neither the Sub-Advisor Firm nor any of its employees is permitted to be an Account Holder1 with respect to the Assets, a “family member,”2 or a “related entity”3 of that Account Holder;

b. Neither the Sub-Advisor Firm nor any of its employees nor a related entity of the Sub-Advisor Firm is an Account Holder with respect to another Giving Account participating in the Program.

22. The Advisor Firm agrees that the total investment management fee charged by the Advisor Firm and any affiliated Sub-Advisor Firms will not exceed the Advisory Fee unless otherwise agreed on.

23. The Advisor Firm agrees to complete Exhibit B with any retained Sub-Advisor Firm that requires Fidelity Charitable to sign a separate agreement with respect to the Assets managed by the Sub-Advisor Firm.

Representations

24. Each party to this Agreement has all necessary power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement and all transactions contemplated hereby, including the Program Guidelines, and such execution, delivery, and performance will not violate any applicable law, rule, regulation, governing document (e.g., trust agreement or charter), contract, or other material agreement binding on a party.

25. This Agreement has been duly authorized by appropriate action and, when executed and delivered, will be binding on each party in accordance with its terms.

1 An “Account Holder” is a donor or donor advisor (as defined by IRS rules and regulations) and/or an Account Holder (as defined in the Fidelity Charitable Policy Guidelines: Program Circular).

2 A “family member” is a spouse, sister or brother (including a half-sister or half-brother), parent, grandparent, great-grandparent, child, grandchild, or great-grandchild, or a spouse of a sister, brother, child, grandchild, or great-grandchild.

3 A “related entity” is any entity in which any Account Holder or his or her family members collectively own more than 35% of the total outstanding interests.
26. If, at the time of execution, the Advisor Firm is a registered investment advisor, the Advisor Firm represents:
   a. It is duly registered as an Investment Advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended ("Advisers Act"), or
   b. It is duly registered as an Investment Advisor under the laws of one or more states.
   The Advisor Firm covenants that it shall immediately notify Fidelity Charitable if the above representation is no longer true.

27. The Advisor Firm has the financial resources, personnel, system access, properties, and assets adequate for the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, and the Advisor Firm will notify Fidelity Charitable promptly of any developments that may adversely affect the Advisor Firm's ability to perform its obligations hereunder.

28. There is no action, suit, or proceeding before or by any court or governmental agency or body, domestic or foreign, now pending, or, to the knowledge of the Advisor Firm, threatened against or affecting the Advisor Firm that might materially affect its ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

29. The Advisor Firm agrees to notify Fidelity Charitable within three business days if any of the representations, covenants, or undertakings made under this Agreement materially change or if at any time the Advisor Firm fails to meet the qualifications or guidelines as set forth in the Program Guidelines. Fidelity Charitable agrees to notify the Advisor Firm promptly if there are any material changes to the Program Guidelines relating to the Advisor Firm's responsibilities.

30. The Advisor Firm agrees that if it materially violates any terms of this Agreement and fails to cure such violation within 30 days of notice by Fidelity Charitable thereof, Fidelity Charitable may require the Advisor Firm to forfeit any fees payable and return any fees paid under this Agreement, from the date of the occurrence of such violation.

Confidential Information

31. All nonpublic information (including information that a reasonable person would recognize to be confidential based on the nature of the information and the circumstances surrounding its disclosure) furnished by Fidelity Charitable to the Advisor Firm will be treated as confidential and will not be disclosed to third parties, except as required by law, rule, regulation, or a regulatory or governmental authority, or as the Advisor Firm deems appropriate to provide the agreed-upon services.

32. The Advisor Firm also acknowledges that the Account Holder may provide additional instructions to Fidelity Charitable regarding its access level to the Account Holder's Giving Account.

Severability

33. If any part of this Agreement is declared null and void, such part shall be deemed separate and severable, and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Duration and Termination

34. This Agreement shall be effective when signed by both parties and shall remain in force and effect until terminated. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the other party, and such notice shall be effective upon delivery.

35. Termination of this Agreement will not affect (i) the validity of any action previously taken by either party under this Agreement, (ii) liabilities or obligations of the parties from transactions initiated before termination of this Agreement, or (iii) Fidelity Charitable's obligation to pay fees as set forth in this Agreement.

36. The Advisor Firm may assign neither this Agreement nor the performance of this Agreement without the written consent of Fidelity Charitable.

Dispute Resolution

37. In the event of any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement arising from or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof, the parties hereto shall use their best efforts to settle the dispute, claim, question, or disagreement. To this effect, they shall consult and negotiate with each other in good faith and, recognizing their mutual interests, attempt to reach a just and equitable solution satisfactory to both parties. If they do not reach such solution within a period of sixty (60) days, then, upon notice by either party to the other, all disputes, claims, questions, or disagreements shall be finally settled in a court of competent jurisdiction in the state of New York.

Other Matters

38. This Agreement, including any addendums and exhibits, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all written and oral communications and agreements between the parties. This Agreement shall be governed under the laws of the state of New York. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Fidelity Charitable’s successors and assigns, whether by merger, consolidation, or otherwise. If a court of competent jurisdiction deems any provision of this Agreement unenforceable, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible, and the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

39. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, Fidelity Charitable may execute additional agreements with the Advisor Firm and Sub-Advisor Firms (“Advisor Agreements”); to and to the extent that there is any inconsistency between the Advisor Agreements and this Agreement, this Agreement will govern.

40. This Agreement may be supplemented, amended, or modified at any time by a written instrument executed by Fidelity Charitable and the Advisor Firm, with such written agreement attached hereto. No course of conduct shall constitute a waiver of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, unless such waiver is specified in writing, and then only to the extent so specified. A waiver of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement on one occasion shall not constitute a waiver of the other terms of this Agreement or of such terms and conditions on any other occasion. An amendment to the Program Guidelines shall be treated as an amendment to this Agreement.

41. All notices provided for under this Agreement shall be provided in writing:

Fidelity Charitable is the brand name for the Fidelity Investments® Charitable Gift Fund, an independent public charity with a donor-advised fund program. Various Fidelity companies provide services to Fidelity Charitable. The Fidelity Charitable name and logo and Fidelity are registered service marks of FMR LLC, used by Fidelity Charitable under license. Giving Account is a registered service mark of the Trustees of Fidelity Charitable. 496543.11.0
Addendum: Other Custodian

Fidelity Charitable has approved the Assets to be custodied at a custodian other than NFS listed below.

Custodian Name

1. Establishment of a Giving Account Participating in the Program

In the event that an Account Holder nominates the Advisor Firm to provide Investment Services:

a. The Advisor Firm agrees to provide the Account Holder with a copy of the Program Guidelines and facilitate the completion of any required Fidelity Charitable forms with the Account Holder.

b. The Advisor Firm agrees to deliver properly completed Fidelity Charitable forms to Fidelity Charitable to initiate the account opening process.

c. During the account opening process, Fidelity Charitable will complete all paperwork required by the Advisor Firm and the Custodian.

d. Assets held in a brokerage account managed by the Advisor Firm on the Custodian platform shall be registered with Fidelity Investments Charitable Gift Fund as the legal account owner.

e. The Advisor Firm agrees to notify the Custodian to release Fidelity Charitable’s brokerage account data (e.g. positions, transactions) to Fidelity Charitable's vendor, Advent, upon the establishment of the Giving Account on the Custodian platform.

f. The Advisor Firm agrees to provide Fidelity Charitable with the brokerage account number established on the Custodian platform.

g. The Advisor Firm agrees to provide Fidelity Charitable and its authorized representatives online account access to all Fidelity Charitable’s accounts held on the Custodian platform.

2. Contributions

a. An Account Holder’s contribution made directly to a brokerage account registered to Fidelity Charitable on the Custodian Platform will be considered received by Fidelity Charitable for the Account Holder’s tax deduction purposes when the Assets are transferred into Fidelity Charitable’s brokerage account. The date of the Account Holder’s instruction does not constitute the receipt date for tax purposes unless it is the date the Assets are transferred to Fidelity Charitable’s brokerage account.

b. For contributions made directly into a brokerage account registered to Fidelity Charitable on the Custodian Platform, Advisor Firm shall provide to Fidelity Charitable a Charitable Investment Advisor Program Contribution Form, which includes the Account Holder’s acknowledgment that the charitable contribution is irrevocable.

3. Liquidity and Wires

a. The Advisor Firm will raise the cash necessary to fulfill any requests by Fidelity Charitable, including but not limited to supporting grant-making and paying Fidelity Charitable’s administrative fees.

b. The Advisor Firm agrees to instruct the Custodian to wire such amount within two business days of the original request.

c. The Advisor Firm agrees to waive all wire fees with respect to such wires.

4. Proxy Voting

The Advisor Firm agrees to deliver proxy voting material electronically to Fidelity Charitable’s agent as instructed by Fidelity Charitable.

5. OFAC Compliance

The Advisor Firm and its direct and indirect subsidiaries represent that neither they nor any of their respective directors, officers, or employees are currently subject to any sanctions administered or enforced by the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”), the United Nations Security Council (“UNSC”), or other relevant sanctions authority (collectively, “Sanctions”). Advisor Firm further represents that it is not located, organized, or resident in a country or territory that is the subject of Sanctions. The Advisor Firm further represents that its Custodian has policies, procedures, and controls in place that are reasonably designed to comply with applicable Sanctions.
