

CINCINNATI

A snapshot of charitable support from donors in the Cincinnati-Middletown metro area

In 2016, Fidelity Charitable® donors in the Cincinnati metro area increased their philanthropic footprint, outpacing Fidelity Charitable® donors in total grant recommendations nationally (19 percent vs 14 percent). Donors here also are actively recommending grants, as the average amount per grant and the average number of grants recommended per Giving Account® remained consistent year-over-year. Almost 60 percent of Cincinnati's $15.9 million in support went to local charities; nonprofits in the religion sector were popular among them, which is no surprise as the region ranks eighth nationally in support for religious charities.
