

Global Poverty Alleviation

THE PROBLEM

Globally, over 750 million people live on less than $1.90 a day. Nonprofit interventions to raise household well-being run the gamut, including programs to provide job-training, education, healthcare and housing.

THE CURATOR

ImpactMatters conducts impact audits, rigorous assessments to certify claims made by nonprofits about their mission-driven outcomes. Impact audits help donors decide where their money is best spent and help nonprofits identify what they are doing well and not-so-well. ImpactMatters assesses nonprofits addressing many philanthropic missions, including global poverty alleviation.

Global Poverty Alleviation

Make a donation to nonprofits that rank high by the audit standards set by ImpactMatters in their pursuit of raising the well-being of world's poorest individuals.

SAMASOURCE

Samasource trains young adults to perform digital micro tasks: tasks which require workers to categorize information in large data sets by following precise, repetitive rules. Besides training, Samasource provides trainees support services, on-the-job experience and pay that meets or exceeds local wage standards set by Samasource's partners.

EIN: 26-2547062

TRICKLE UP

Trickle Up helps ultra-poor households create small businesses by providing them a four-part program that includes cash stipend, training, coaching, and savings incentives.

EIN: 06-1043042

BOMA PROJECT

BOMA gives ultra-poor women a cash stipend to start a business and puts them through a two-years sequence of interventions, including small-business training, mentoring, and a group-savings regimen.

EIN: 84-1671995

VILLAGE ENTERPRISE

Village Enterprise helps poor households set up small businesses by providing them cash, small-business training, mentoring and savings incentives.

EIN: 22-2852248